

Notice about bringing food to students:

Only immediate family members on special occasions may bring food from a restaurant for a student, provided that immediate family member stays and eats with the student. No one will be allowed to bring food from a restaurant and drop it off for a student.