

ANNOUNCEMENTS!

WEDNESDAY 10/14/2009

Students Friday night we will be Navying out IHS for the game against Franklin. Make sure you wear whatever you have that is Navy, and make the stands BLUE. Now is also a great time to purchase your Navy rally towel during lunch in the commons to wave at the game.

If any girl is interested in playing Rugby for IHS please come to a quick meeting after school on Thursday Oct. 15th in D209 or stop by and see Coach Black.

The IHS Bowling team had another great night last night! The girls team tied at the end of the match, but gave up three bonus points to Hillwood for pinfall leaving us with a score of Independence 12 points, Hillwood 15 points. The boys team once again soundly beat the competition taking 21 of the 27 possible points from the Hillwood boys. Zac Cohen had an outstanding series, bowling 166, 267 and 277!!! He had a total game score of 710! Congratulations for an outstanding night!! Our next game is at Franklin Lanes, Wed. Oct. 21 against Page. Come on out and cheer us on.

Liberty University and Christian Brothers University will be here today in the commons for all interested students.

Trevecca Nazarene University and Nashville State Community College will be at IHS tomorrow.

Seniors come out on Friday night to the football game and participate in a Tailgate sponsored by POGS.
