

English III Summer Reading 2022

Welcome to English III! Your summer reading assignment is to read one book from the list below. There will be an assignment given at the beginning of the school year, and it will be due shortly after. To make the best decision for yourself, take time to research genres and descriptions of each novel.

As you read, keep notes on how the concept of freedom exists within your chosen novel as a key theme. Consider plot development, setting, characterization / character development, conflict(s) & resolution(s), and other themes. Keep track of page numbers and quotes as you take notes so you can easily find the pieces you need for later assignments because evidence will be required.

If you have any specific questions about these options or what to keep track of, please do not hesitate to reach out: joshua.hollandsworth@wcs.edu.

See you next year!

Book Options

Some titles contain mature content.

Please check with your parent/guardian before selecting a book from the list below. Parents, please look up the book online for any additional information in helping with any book reading decisions.

- The Awakening, Kate Chopin
- Catch-22, Joseph Heller
- The Dispossessed, Ursula K. Le Guin
- The Hiding Place, Corrie Ten Boom
- Internment, Samira Ahmed
- Into the Wild, John Krakauer
- One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Ken Kesey
- Their Eyes Were Watching God, Zora Neale Hurston