

Post-Secondary Planning Websites

Exploring Colleges:

College Board College Search – Explore your preferences and find out which college is right for you.

 CollegeNET – Have no idea where to go to college? Create search parameters, and you will get a list of potential colleges.

CollegeView – Examine more than 3,800 schools to find the college that's right for you. Take a virtual campus tour, apply online, and more.

Filling out College Applications:

Common College Application: Recommended form for 700 colleges and universities for admission to their undergrad programs.

What Can I Do With This Major? – Choose from a variety of majors to see what career opportunities are available.

U.S. News and World Report College Rankings – This website includes the 2016 college rankings as well as information about applying to college.

NCAA – Prospective student athletes should fill out the online U.S. Student Release Form to register with the Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Virtual Campus Tours – A college planning web site featuring 360° x 360° tours of hundreds of college campuses.

Study Abroad – A full listing of Study Abroad programs for college and high school students.

ACT: Find test dates, test prep, test day 411, view scores, and more!