SCHEDULING AND ROUTING

All school bus drivers must follow the route and schedule as established and shall be at each bus stop at the appointed time if possible. Drivers will not let students unload at school until the scheduled time.

Bus drivers shall not stop at stores or eating establishments with students while enroute to and from school.

All schools shall receive copies of the bus routes for their respective schools prior to the opening of school. These routes shall not be changed unless approved by the Transportation Director.
