1. Study period is to be treated as a regular class for all students.

2. Study period should be quiet.

3. Students should be working on assignments, studying for tests, or reading.

4. If students need to use the library during their study period, they should have a note signed by their study period teacher.

5. Students should not be playing cards in the classroom.

6. Students should not be allowed to roam the building.

7. If a teacher needs to see a student during their study hall, they will either need to pick them up from their class or send a note with them. A student should not leave to get a note to leave study period.

8. No student should have a note to go to the gym to play with the PE classes or workout in the weight room.

9. Eating is not allowed during study period. Water can be brought to class in a clear container.

10. Electronic devices can only be used at teacher’s discretion.