Grades 9-12, Broadcasting I, Quarter 2, Revised 2013

Big Ideas/Key Concepts: Post-Production (Video & Audio), Editing Adobe Premiere, Interviewing Techniques, Audio Recording

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Standards</th>
<th>Student Friendly “I Can” Statements</th>
<th>Resources</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3.0 Students will integrate reading, writing, math, and science skills and understand the impact of academic achievement in the work place. 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.7, 3.8 | “I can interview people using open-ended questions.”
“I know how to log soundbites, and know why this is important.”
I can tell how many frames per second film consists of, versus video.
I can explain what timecode is, and I can edit clips together using timecode.
I can edit using the basics of Adobe Premiere Pro”
“I can edit using Adobe Premiere Short Cut Keys”
“I know how to adjust and capture audio using a DVX camera”
“I know how to adjust audio to proper decibel levels”
“I know how to burn a DVD to a DVD Writing Program.” | Vocabulary Quiz
Practical Project – interview people about a certain topic, and edit together using text, and adjust audio.”
Write a script for an editor, using timecode for specific editing instructions.
Short Cut Key Quiz
Unit Exam |