Big Ideas/Key Concepts:
Students develop their communicative abilities through discussing buying food items at a market, preparing food, eating out at a restaurant, describing medical events, symptoms and medical information, and ways to stay healthy. Students learn to compare things and people. Their knowledge of the subjunctive mood is expanded to include the past tense. Students develop writing through a description and detailing a process.

Ongoing Standards
The following standards will be used throughout the quarter.

1.2 Interpretive Mode of Communication:
- S3.WCE.1 I can listen to an audio segment or video in the target language, listening for comprehension and details.
- S3.WCE.2 I can combine reading strategies to summarize plots and characters from selected pieces of age-appropriate literature.
- S3.WCE.3 I can interpret the message in increasingly complex texts by using background knowledge and comprehension strategies (e.g., through redundancy, restatement and paraphrasing).
- S3.WCE.4 I can determine the main themes and supporting details on a variety of topics from authentic multimedia and print sources, both informational text and narratives.

1.1 Interpersonal Mode of Communication:
- S3.WCE.5 I can communicate with classmates by creating language during interactions on a variety of topics.
- S3.WCE.6 I can initiate and respond to social media (Twitter/Edmodo/email) with my teacher or classmates in the target language.
- S3.WCE.7 I can not only ask and answer clarifying questions, but also initiate communication.
- S3.WCE.8 I can integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information including idiomatic phrases in order to collaborate or problem solve with a partner or small group.
- S3.WCE.9 I can give and follow directions as needed to participate in interactions within and across cultures.

1.3 Presentational Mode of Communication:
- S3.WCE.10 I can present material on a variety of topics with a variety of media, including digital or visual displays, short oral messages or reports about people, places, things or events in the community using increasingly complex language.
- S3.WCE.11 I can demonstrate an increasing awareness of errors and the ability to self-edit.
- S3.WCE.12 I can produce written and spoken messages such as reports, short articles and summaries to explore local and global issues.
- S3.WCE.13 I can write demonstrating a command of an expanding number of topics and idiomatic expressions with culturally appropriate vocabulary.
2.2 CULTURES: Relating Cultural Products to Perspectives
  - S3.WCE.14 I can explain and compare products and/or practices of my own culture to peers in the target culture.
  - S3.WCE.15 I can investigate cultural perspectives through individual or collaborative research on products and practices.

3.2 CONNECTIONS: Acquiring Information and Diverse Perspectives
  - S3.WCE.16 I can identify and appreciate differences in cultural perspectives in a broader range of topics and begin to appreciate such differences not only in topic areas presented in the curriculum.

4.1 COMPARISONS: Language
  - S3.WCE.17 I can understand the relationship among languages based on their awareness of cognates, idioms and parallel structures.

4.2 COMPARISONS: Cultural
  - S3.WCE.18 I can begin to identify and appreciate the values and perspectives of the target culture from within its own cultural system rather than judging non-American cultural practices according to American conventions.

5.1 COMMUNITIES: School and Global Communities
  - S3.WCE.19 I can identify where and how the target language is used in my community.

BYOT
  - S3.WCE.20 I can practice digital citizenship and integrity, especially with regards to language learning (i.e. research, online translators).

---

Note to Teachers
- Use authentic resources when planning for instruction.
- Encourage students to set their own proficiency goals.
